MICHIGAN DOLPHINS CODE OF CONDUCT

ALL coaches, families, athletes, and team officials are looked upon as potential role models by the participants. Coaches are the ambassadors of the Conference, and in many cases will be the only contact that a player, cheerleader or parent will have with the Conference. Coaches create the opinions that participants and parents will perceive the Michigan Youth Football League and Detroit PAL either positively or negatively and can significantly impact the organization's future success.

Therefore, all coaches, players, cheerleaders, and team officials will abide by the Code of Conduct and Rules. If any rules or codes of conduct should be broken, the Michigan Dolphins Board of Directors shall have the authority to impose a penalty. The Board of Directors, depending on the violation and the severity of its impact, shall determine this penalty, which may result in suspension or expulsion from the Michigan Dolphins organization.

These categories are generally descriptive of the most obvious types of misconduct and are not to be construed as an exclusive list or as a limitation upon the authority of the Michigan Dolphins Board of Directors to deal appropriately with any other types of conduct, which interfere with the good order of the organization.

The following behaviors will not be tolerated by any Michigan Dolphins Board member, coach, director, football player, cheerleader, parent/guardian, or fan, and will be considered a violation of our Code of Conduct: We are on a three-strike rule layout, violating any of the below items will constitute in a strike.

IN ADDITION, COACHES SHALL:

1. Follow the rules as prescribed for coaches in the Michigan High School Athletic Association rules and the of the Michigan Youth Football League and Detroit PAL. These rules shall be the governing rules of the Michigan Dolphins. The rules listed below shall apply if they are not already within the rules and guidelines of the above-mentioned the Michigan Youth Football League and Detroit PAL.
2. Criticize only in a constructive manner, with the intent to benefit and never to humiliate a participant. Coached should look for ways to compliment and always offer positive reinforcement where possible.
3. Refrain from making negative comments regarding fellow coaches, programs, or players of the Michigan Youth Football League and Detroit PAL teams in front of football/cheerleading participants, other coaches, and parents while on the practice field, games or Conference sponsored events. If it is felt that fellow coaches are making mistakes, help by means of communicating your observations to the Vice President of Football or Cheer Operations. The Vice President of Football or Cheer Operations will determine if your observation warrants further action.
4. Strive to make every football/cheerleading activity serve as a training ground for life and a basis for good mental and physical health.
5. Emphasize that winning a game is the result of good TEAMWORK.
6. Treat all participants equally. There shall not be any favoritism shown or special privileges given to one participant that cannot be given to another.
7. When scores are such that leads are commanding, refrain from "piling it on," but use this as an opportunity to let all players receive more playing time.
8. Uphold all rules and regulations adopted by the Michigan Youth Football League and Detroit PAL.
9. Coaches alone do not make the team or conference policy. However, on the playing and practice fields, the coaching staff is in complete charge and shall not be interfered with except in cases of rule violations and any other conduct deemed by the Board of Directors to be contrary to the welfare of youth participants.

We expect all Michigan Dolphins participants to enjoy the game and support and respect all players, cheerleaders, coaches, officials, Board members, and parents (regardless of team affiliation).

I understand that failure to comply with the above code of conduct will result in 1 warning unless the Michigan Dolphins Board of Directors decides that a violation of this code merits immediate suspension or expulsion from the program. This form should be read as part of the online registration process and will be agreed to upon completion of registration.
